FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Why is the wait time so long?

The Repairs program is funded by grants and donations; we have to wait for funds to become available to match your repair needs.

Why do you need my bank statements?

We are required to track all sources of income for applicants to determine eligibility.

What if I or someone in my household has no income or does not work?

Email or call for an Income Affidavit to be completed in front of a notary. You are welcome to use your own notary, or Durham Habitat can provide one for you.

What if I do not have a mortgage?

Simply give us a call and inform us.

What if I am self-employed and do not have pay stubs to submit?

Submit a copy of your form 1099 along with the last two years of tax returns along with current year profit and loss statement.

What if I do not have a driver's license?

You may submit an alternative legal photo ID, Medicaid card (for eligible applicants), or school ID (for students only).

What is meant by "unaltered" bank statements?

Documents that are not written on, highlighted, have white-out, or are drawn on in any way.

What is meant by "incomplete" application?

An application that is not filled out completely or is submitted without any of the required documents.
